

Convocation 2018 – April 22, 2018 at CPHS on Walkers Rd.

IN THIS ISSUE

Are You Ready for Convocation 2018?

Our Council’s Convocation will be an amazing time of fellowship, worship, and reflection as we gather as one church family. However, there are many interesting components that will make the day even more special and memorable for all. Trust and believe Convocation 2018 is not to be missed!

For the past few weekly updates the Council Office has been briefly sharing some of the intricate details that will create a transformative experience that is Convocation 2018. If you have been following along you know by now the theme is “Disciples of Peace”, the location is Cayman Prep and High School Auditorium on Walkers Rd, and that is will begin at 9:00am. It is a fact that after you read about the different components of Convocation shared below, you will realize the transformational experience that awaits our church family and communities on Sunday, April 22.

Are you ready for Convocation 2018? Contd.

Our Council's Convocation falls on April 22, Earth Day! The Teens' age 13 - 17 will have a special time of reflection on being at Peace with the Earth. The reflection will be followed by the planting of orchids on trees at CPHS.

A special part of the worship will be the incorporation of a potter who will be led by the spirit as we worship to create an artwork based on the theme of peace. The art piece created will be presented to the Premier as a gift of peace from the United Church.

A memorable moment of Convocation 2018 will be the honouring of Mrs. Olive Miller and her work in Cayman's Girls' Brigade and the wider Cayman community.

Be There! Convocation 2018 on Sunday, April 22 at the Cayman Prep and High School Auditorium on Walkers Rd. The service will begin at 9:00am! Trust and believe, Convocation 2018 is not to be missed!

CAYMAN'S NEW GOVERNOR SPENDS EASTER SUNDAY WITH ELSMLIE!

On Sunday, April 1 Christians around the world celebrated Easter Sunday!

It was a special Easter service for Elmslie Memorial United Church as they celebrated Easter Sunday with the Cayman Islands' newest governor Anwar Choudhury in their midst. The Girls' Brigade George Town company greeted the governor as he entered and exited the church providing a formal and friendly GB welcome. The service involved special ways of worship such as ministry through dance and adorning a cross with carnations.

BAPTISMS ON GOOD FRIDAY AT EE/GB CHARGE AND SAVANNAH UNITED

The East End/Gun Bay Charge and the Savannah United Church both held baptisms on Good Friday. The United Church members, continued their Christian journey and commitment to Christ through the sacrament of baptism. Five members of the East End/Gun Bay Charge were baptized by the charge's Minister Rev. Alice Blair who was assisted by Rev. Euthman Wray and Elders of the Charge. From East End United Church: Melody McLean, Gwelda Conolly, Stanley Quinland, and Peter Quinland (a member of William Pouchie Memorial) were baptized and from Gun Bay United Church, Vernie Watler-Harris. Seven members of the Savannah United Church were baptized by the congregation's Minister Rev. Euthman Wray assisted by Elders of the congregation, the youngest baptized being only 7 years old. They were: Lennox Seymour, Heather Seymour, Mark Hull, Glen Gardner, Stacy Bounds, Kaynesha Hurlston, and Kailey Tamasa.
